

The Mary Kenyon Memorial Lecture for 2022

Will be given by

Dr Eloise Davies

of the University of Oxford

on

Wednesday 21st September at 4.30pm in V10

Eloise is a former student of CCHS who now teaches at the University of Oxford. She is an award-winning historian whose work focuses on the history of diplomacy, religion and political thought. She is a particular expert on the relationship between England and Venice in the early modern period and will be speaking on:

'Beyond Shakespeare. Why Venice mattered in Jacobean England'.

All students, staff and parents are most welcome.