

Inspiring the leaders of tomorrow to think for themselves and act for others

MESSAGE FROM MR LAWLOR

On Tuesday evening, several of our students (Likhita, Alice, Alexandra, Neha, Rishika, Grace, Karen and Sophie), and Mrs Greenland, attended a prize-giving event to receive their Jack Petchey Awards. Mr Copper kindly attended as well to represent our school. We are so pleased for and proud of them all. CCHS is a gold award member of the Jack Petchey Foundation award scheme. This means we are able to recognise the work and contributions of our students. We choose to think of this as learning through action, and we focus on nominating students who make a significant contribution to the local and/or global community.

Being involved in this scheme also allows us to recognise the exceptional work of our staff, who work with students beyond the classroom, through the Jack Petchey Leader Award. The Jack Petchey Foundation was established in 1999. Please follow the link below to find out more about this impressive organisation.

SPOTLIGHT

Each week, a member of staff provides a brief outline of their work in the school in our 'Spotlight' feature. This will enable the CCHS community to appreciate the nature, importance and impact of the industrious and talented staff who work at our school. Allied with our wonderful students, encouraging parents and supportive governors, our school community is blessed with people who are committed to excellence in girls' education and empowerment.

Mr Lawlor

Our pastoral system is an integral part of school life and, as always, it has been a busy start to the school year. The pastoral team work tirelessly to support all students – trying to make sure the best support is in place. This may mean working with outside agencies or talking to colleagues in school, we do what is needed to make sure every student's need is considered. The pastoral team have a weekly briefing on a Friday – we talk and make sure all is well before the weekend – this is also when we discuss attendance. So, whether you are dropping in to one of the Year Leaders, using the Hub, utilising the Mental Health First Aid drop in, talking to Mrs Maslin, or just giving us a wave in the corridor – every interaction. counts.

As you know, my role also includes safeguarding every student in our school, and I must say, you are fantastic at telling me things you want us to keep an eye out for. What you might not know, is that one of my responsibilities is the Entrance Test and Primary outreach work. So, currently, Mrs Maslin and I are working on the logistics of the 2023 test and how best to engage younger students from our Partner Primary Schools.

Students Voice now has a section where you can give feedback on our pastoral system. So please use your voice if you have any ideas.

We are always here if you need to talk or even if you don't.
Wishing you all the very best for the term ahead.

Miss Harrison

Deputy Head, Pastoral.

Zero: A Void World

Above me, rippled the lucent water, the sunbeams radiating my tortoise shell. Sea life embraced me and the sun blazed golden. Suddenly, a colossal body glided over me and I was engulfed into darkness. My mother, distraught with worry, froze at the giant hand plunging into the incandescent ocean, prepared to envelop me into an eternity of desolation.

I was prepared to be subtracted from existence, just like numerous other creatures, losing the ocean 1 by 1 until wildlife withers into emptiness, whereas our destroyers are multiplying and sabotaging the world from our reach. Life will perish into 0.

They worked well together as a team with Ama being singled out as an excellent questioner. They will now go on to one more regional round, before competing at national level. They are members of the Debating Society, a student-led club supported by Mrs Watt.
