Cally Hammond studied at CCHS between 1975 and 1982. She then went to St John's College, Oxford to read Classics (1983-1987). She became a Research Fellow in Classics at Downing College, Cambridge (1991-1994), where she completed her doctorate and published a translation of The Gallic War by Julius Caesar (Oxford 1995). She then took Holy Orders and after a period in parish ministry was appointed Dean of Gonville and Caius College, Cambridge in 2005. In this role she teaches both Classics and Theology and she has published widely on Christian Theology and on St Augustine.

All are most welcome.
